

CAYAS Presents
"Enhancing Literacy Through Art" and
"Discover the Great Masters" with Mary Ann Kohl

Nationally known author and presenter MaryAnn Kohl will provide a full day workshop that stresses the process of art - exploration, discovery, and individual creativity. Applicable for those working preschool through school age and guaranteed to jump start your energy for the 2009 Summer Reading Program Be Creative @ Your Library. Morning and afternoon presentations will be followed by hands on art activities so bring your smock. One of Mary Ann's books will be included in the registration fee and available for autographing before and after the workshop.

- Understand why art with children is more about process than product.
- Learn how to encourage creativity and exploration when working with children.
- Learn how literacy can be enhanced through easy art ideas.
